

WHO IS YOUR “CHAMPION OF THEATRE ARTS”?

Carousel Players invites you to nominate an outstanding teacher for the Norah Morgan Memorial Award For Excellence in Theatre Arts Education

Carousel Players will honour the memory of internationally renowned teacher, teacher educator, and author, Norah Morgan by celebrating a Niagara area teacher who:

- Inspires their students through the integration of drama/dance into regular classroom experiences and across the curriculum
- Challenges their students to experience and explore all types of drama/dance
- Makes a robust contribution to arts education in Niagara

Nominees: Elementary school teachers in Public, Catholic, English, French or Independent schools in the Niagara Region will be considered.

Nominators: Principals, teacher colleagues and parent council members are invited to submit a nomination.

Nominations: Submissions will be accepted until September each year. These will be juried by a panel selected from the Carousel Players Educational Advisory Committee.

To nominate your Champion of Theatre Arts, please fill out the nomination form, outlining your reasons for commending this teacher, particularly noting their accomplishments integrating drama/dance in the classroom and throughout the curriculum.

Champions: If your nominated teacher is selected, he or she will be recognized with a presentation at an appropriate venue (their school, a school board meeting) and that teacher will be gifted a complimentary Carousel Players performance for their students at their school.

Norah Morgan was a pioneer and champion of drama in education for almost 50 years. In 1972, she worked with Des Davis in developing a vision of Carousel Players that continues to inspire students and teachers locally, provincially, nationally and internationally.
